SOLENT AMATEUR ASTRONOMERS

MEMBERSHIP TYPES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS

There are several categories and conditions of membership of Solent Amateur Astronomers. The list below describes them.

(a) Life Honorary: where a member becomes a member to the end of their life or until the dissolution of the Society, whichever occurs sooner, without the need to pay fees. This membership may be granted or awarded by the committee once per year to a member who has had 25 or more years continuous membership and who has given exceptional, consistent and long term work beneficial to the Society.

(b) Honorary: where membership without the need to pay fees is granted or awarded by the committee for the current term. This award may be given for exceptional, consistent and long term work beneficial to the Society.

(c) Affiliated: where another group or body acquire access to Society facilities and meetings for the current term by arrangement with the committee.

(d) Life: where a person or member becomes a member to the end of their life or until the dissolution of the Society, whichever occurs sooner, for (with the exception of the Honorary Life President) ten times the prevailing annual Single fees without further payments.

(e) Family: where a group or family at the same address become members for the current term.

(f) Single: where a single person becomes a member for the current term.

(g) Reduced Single: where a single person either under 18 years of age, over the state pension age, registered as unemployed, or a full-time student on the date of renewal for membership becomes a member for the current term at the reduced fee.

The current subscription fees, as instituted at the 2004 AGM (and at the 2016 AGM regarding reduced fees), are as follows;

(a) Life Honorary - No fees payable. (b) Honorary - No fees payable. (c) Affiliated - by arrangement.
(d) Life - £280. (e) Family - £35 per year. (f) Single - £28 per year. (g) Reduced Single - £17 per year.

Membership renewal is subject to committee approval, payment of the prevailing fees and assent to the Society's constitution. All types of membership receive a free monthly newsletter except Family members who receive one copy only. Membership runs from the 1st September of one year to 31st August of the following year, fees payable are for that period.

Renewal of membership must take place before the AGM, usually held in the third week of October, or else membership will be deemed to have lapsed.
